

CCM is rooted in a long lineage of indigenous healers and psychotherapist working with expanded states of consciousness.

Francoise Bourzat

Dates lived: 1956- present

Bio: is a French born consciousness guide and counselor. She has a master's degree in Somatic Psychology from New College of California and trained at the Hakomi Institute. She draws from years of close apprenticeship with her Mazatec teacher, as well as training in other indigenous traditions, providing an approach that bridges Western and indigenous modalities for healing and growth. She trains therapists and facilitators, has been an adjunct teacher at the California Institute of Integral Studies (CIIS), lectures internationally and has been in private practice for the last 30 years.

Lineage: Francoise studied directly from Salvador, Pablo, Ralph, and Julieta. She now collaborates with Eugenia on healing work with mushrooms in Mexico and has trained practitioners on the art of facilitating healing through expanded states of consciousness.
